

THE NEW

RAYMOND RECORDER

There was something new and different at the regular meeting of the Raymond Lions' Club last Monday. The ladies were present and very busy. At the first Ladies' Night held in a long time, the entire meeting was taken over by the Lionesses with Mrs. Woolf conducting the meeting in place of her husband, the Club President. Anne was the first Vice-Pres. and LaFern was Secretary. Margaret Hill acted as Lion Tamer, and in the absence of Mr. and Mrs. Herbe Wilde, Alice Powelson took over the duties as Tail Twister — does she ever twist a mean tail.

An old Charter Member, Lorin Larson, and his wife visited us as guests of the President. Mr. and Mrs. Dan Holliday and GH Evans were also guests for our Ladies Night, as well as some strangers who were not introduced.

Mr. and Mrs. Country Cousins gave us a very tart dialogue and then Sister Jacqueline Evanson gave us the low down on the thrills or spills that a girl can get from a cud of dentine. The lady Secretary read a revealing episode of boils — most painful notwithstanding, and how a housewife took the boil to the painters instead of the hospital doctor.

A new slant on the absenteeism was introduced. The lady tail-twister collected a fee from each member and then all the Lions names were put into a hat. A Lion's name was drawn out of the hat and the entire pot was sent to that Lion's wife. Mrs. Bill Greep was the lucky winner when Bill's name came out. Here is the catch — at regular meetings the ladies are not there, but the draw will be made just as it was last Monday, and the money is sent to the wife. However, if the Lion is not present when his name is drawn, his wife will be called and told that his absence has cost her the pot of gold. Will she ever kick him around for being away and costing her good money.

Visits Glenwood

The President and Secretary of the Club took their wives to Glenwood to visit that Club on Wednesday night to attend their very lively Ladies Night Party. After the supper, Zone Chairman Leon Harker called a short Zone Meeting of the five Clubs in the South West region. Raymond, Hillspring, Glenwood and Cardston were represented. The McGrath officers did not show up. The Clubs are all active and working hard on very worthwhile projects.

The Glenwood Club has purchased a Barracks Block from Macleod Air School Base and moved it out for a Lions Club Hall. They have a good kitchen, a banquet room, and a good sized hall. The community uses it for many projects and entertainments which are not well adapted to their Church Hall. A five thousand dollar project is nearly completed and all paid off but for about five hundred dollars. For a Club of Twenty-five members we think that they have done remarkably well. Most of the money has been raised by a Turkey Shoot every year. They start another about December 1st, and it runs for about a month. If you need turkeys for the holiday, go out and see Glenwood Lions.

Weddings

Dower - Wilde

The Wedding of Miss Loreen Wilde of Wellng and Alex Dower of Woolford took place at the United Church Manse in Lethbridge at 11:30 a.m. on Friday November 3rd. The Rev. A. M. Mercer officiated with only immediate relatives of the Bride and Groom in attendance.

Mrs. Minnie Wilde was the Bride's only attendant while Mr. J. A. Carson supported the Groom.

The radiant Bride was attired in a suit of blue grey gabardine with wine accessories and an orchid corsage.

The happy young couple left at four for Calgary, Vancouver and Victoria for a month's Honeymoon trip. Upon their return they will be at home to their friends on the Groom's farm at Woolford.

Legion Hold Zone Rally Here

A very successful Canadian Legion Zone No. 4 Rally was held on October 27th, at the Legion Memorial Hall. About 85 members from Barons Cardston, Picture Butte, Milk River, Lethbridge and Raymond sat down to a delicious dinner served by the Ladies Auxiliary. Captain Golden Show of Fereday Grace.

The guest speaker of the evening was the Provincial President, Geo. E. Cleave M. M. of Edmonton, who spoke on the aims and organization of the Legion. The Province is divided into 6 Districts and these in turn are divided into zones, each having a Commander. To give an idea of how well this system works, he stated that in 1948 there were 5000 new members enrolled, in 1949, 800 new members and in 1950, 1,700 new members. Poppy Sales have also shown an increase in 1949 of more than 43% over 1948.

He also spoke of the threat of Communism to the world and stated that even within the boundaries of Canada we are not immune to this threat. Clear and forward thinking is what is required to save the world from Communism, and he called on the ex-service men and women to help curb this threat. Mr. Cleave mentioned the Resolution on Total Preparedness passed at the recent Legion Convention, and said that the Legion was putting pressure on the government not to be caught unprepared as the U. S. A. was in Korea. Needless to say, much suffering was caused because of this.

The Provincial President congratulated the local Branch for their splendid building, and said he was glad to see that the Memorials throughout the Province were of a more practical nature. He also congratulated the Auxiliary on their splendid efforts.

Others who spoke were Comrade Frank Taylor who gave the Civic Address of welcome, Wally Purvis, District Commander of Coleman, Ted Brown Provincial Treasurer, of Calgary, Bob Blythman Provincial Organizer, Joe Allen, Pres. No. 1 Branch, Calgary, Jim McLaughlin, Pres. No. 4 Branch, Lethbridge.

Comrade Chas. Bell of Milk River proposed the Toast to the King and Jeanine Jensen sang a solo. Zone Commander Bob Reagh of Lethbridge was Chairman of the Meeting.

ROTE SPOKES

Rotarians of Raymond dined their wives Wednesday night at the Legion Hall in honor of District Governor Dick Mason and his wife Jean. After a dinner provided by the Ladies Auxiliary, Governor Dick gave the gathered guests a timely address on Rotary today. In another section of this Paper there appears a brief biography of Dick and a report of his talk. It is sufficient to say here that the Raymond Roters and their wives accepted Dick and Jean into their midst and found them to be a friendly and sincere couple. We would like to see more of them for a couple as who are as Rotary-minded as they are, cannot help but enthuse those who are fortunate enough to come in contact with them.

We were pleased to welcome as special guests Dr. Harlan Taylor and wife and Dr. Gordon Anderson and wife. It was nice to see D. A. Bennett on hand. D. A. has joined our Club and will be formally welcomed at a later meeting. We sincerely hope these fel lows caught some of the spirit of Rotary from Governor Dick.

We learned that Dick is not a stranger to our town. Before the first great War he was here working in the Bank of Montreal and in his talk he reminisced briefly on some of the events taking place in Raymond during his sojourn. At the conclusion of Dick's talk, Frank Taylor ably voiced the hearty thanks of those assembled, for Governor Dick's presence and for his thought provoking address.

At this juncture the ladies parted company from the men. As previously arranged they retired to the home of President C. R. Wing where they enjoyed the hospitality of his good wife Viola and where they were interestingly entertained by Jean Mason. Jean told them of their experiences while residing in England. While this was going on the men stayed at the Legion Hall, meeting in Club Assembly. Here the problems of our Club were discussed and many useful ideas received from the Governor. Later in the evening the men followed their wives to C. R.'s and Viola's where the entire group was served further refreshments by Viola. Yes, summing it up, a very enjoyable and memorable evening.

President to Europe

Just about the time this issue was to come off the press, Rotary's International President, Arthur Lageux, was to leave Quebec on the "Empress of Scotland" bound for Europe. Before him — on a tightly scheduled itinerary — were visits to Rotary Clubs in France, Italy, Tunisia, Algeria, Morocco and Portugal. With him, as on his last extensive swing through Canada to Alaska, will be his wife Christine. They will enplane at Lisbon November 29 for their homing flight to North America, with more than a month's accumulation of global correspondence awaiting President Lageux at his home town.

Hi School News

Sluff!!

Ho-hum!! I can't help but suppress a yawn. What shall I do to day? Early this morning some eager grade twelves decided to call Sluff. Of course they had to be subtle, so they quietly persuaded the elevens to persuade the tens to call Sluff Day.

As I hear it, Sluff Day was formerly Initiation Day when the Freshmen came into High School and became sophs. This practice was abolished not so long ago, and in its place we have Sluff Day, when, once a year the students strike in body. The teachers seem to enjoy this holiday as much as the students.

As I was saying, the twelves and 11's were persuading the grade 10's to call sluff. They had good reason to; a French and English exam for which no one had studied. The bell rang. No one budged. Roll call, a clatter and angry bang of books and pens, and then—a whoop of wild joy! The door opened and regardless of teachers' bewildered stares, exuberant students burst in to impart the glad tidings Sluff!! The grade tens had come through, bless their little hearts.

So, we sluffed. Now sitting at home I wonder if it is worth it. The wind is blowing mightily, the sun sends out lukewarm rays only occasionally, and the prospect of a whole day with nothing to do is making me wretched. Call for the strait jacket, I'm ready to go.

The moral of this story is never count your holidays before they are hatched.

Oh, yes, there is a very interesting (in my opinion at least) program on our own C.J.O.C. every Sunday at 2:15 It might be worth your while to listen in.

Have you heard this one?

"Are you fishing?" we asked the angler.

"Oh no," he answered with a grin, "I'm only drowning worms!"
